Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Clair S. Caldwell has actively served the community of Worthing, South Dakota, for nearly a half century in the maintenance of its sewer and water systems; and,

WHEREAS, In those fifty years, Clair became known as a fair man who was a conscientious and competent city employee; and,

WHEREAS, Even today, although Clair officially retired this spring as the city's only employee, he is still available to help out when he can; and,

WHEREAS, Clair Caldwell and his wife, Ella, can look back on their many years of dedicated service to Worthing with pride, knowing that their efforts were very much appreciated by all of the townfolk; and,

WHEREAS, For many years, Clair has been an upstanding and respected member of his community, and for all the work he has done to keep the town (and its water) running, he deserves this special recognition:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 20, 1983, as

CLAIR S. CALDWELL DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
